

Hands-on Music Workshops for schools

Music through the Ages

Music, instruments and ensembles from the Renaissance to the present

Explore the major historical periods of the Renaissance, Baroque, Classical, Romantic and modern era through the Bate Collection's instruments. Discover the musical and social development of ensembles, and play instruments from the collection – from natural trumpet to spinet, from lute to classical clarinet, and serpent to theremin.

for Key Stages 4 & 5

Javanese Gamelan

Learn to play a traditional Javanese piece while exploring the use of cyclic forms, pentatonic scales and interlocking patterns. Discover the cultural context of the music and how gamelan techniques and structures are employed in composition.

for Key Stages 3-5

Essential information

Inspirational aid for GCSE, A-level and more!

Duration of each workshop: 2 hours

Maximum group size: 15 students for Music through the Ages; 20 students for Gamelan

Music Study Day: Combine Music through the Ages with the Gamelan workshop in one study day

Cost: £120 for one workshop, or £200 for both combined. Some bursaries are available for schools.

Available: Mondays or Tuesdays (please enquire about other availability)

Mornings only for Music through the Ages workshops

Venue: Bate Collection of Musical Instruments,
Faculty of Music, St Aldate's, Oxford OX1 1DB

Booking essential: email bate.collection@music.ox.ac.uk

Website: www.bate.ox.ac.uk

FACULTY OF
MUSIC

UNIVERSITY OF
OXFORD